

He looked in the mirror,
And he saw he was green,
His reflection surprised him,
The result was a screeeeeam!

He said - Is it seaweed?
Is moss growing on me?
He shrugged his fins and said -
I guess I'm just green!

He put down the scrub-brush.
Paper bubbles everywhere.
Transformed the mucky tub,
Into art for a high-end club!

You see, the unique is magical,
Skill n' work go hand in hand.
And that's the story of,
Origami Goldfish Sam!

Fish folded in copper,
They had quite a sheen.
School friends swam in a bathtub,
Fish felt he was part of the team!

Paper at random,
For a folded surprise.
Didn't know it was a goldfish,
Til green origami swam by.

BY LISA B. CORFMAN

It's Okay to be Green:
Worried Green Goldfish Sam

Goldfish Art Project Grant

More information is at:

Website: www.rockyartsunfolded.com/Services/GoldfishMural.html

Facebook page: www.facebook.com/GoldfishArtProject

YouTube channel: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCs-8dqgmICWvYcKwMz2aYew0/>

Support was given by:

Maynard Cultural Council, Lincoln Property Company, Rocky Arts Unfolded, BNN TV's It's All About Arts, Maynard ArtSpace, Boston Green Festival, the Hearing Room and OrigamiUSA.

And THANK YOU to all involved!